"BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA";

Appeal of EARL MCLEOD of Citation

Number T .22-01-008 in the amount of $4,000 issued on January 13, 2022 by the Consumer Protection and Enforcement Division.

NOTICE OF APPEAL OF EARL MCLEOD JR OF CITATION NUMBER T.22-01-008

Pursuant to Appendix A of Res. AI-J-377 (Rules 3 and 4 of the Citation Appeal Rules) EARL MCLEOD JR. herein notices its appeal of Citation T .22-01-008 and moves for its dismissal.

The Ford 550 that was cited was a private vehicle, under personal use. The occupants in the vehicle were family. No payment, trade or service was made to Earl McLeod for the trip when citation was given or any other time. When the vehicle was purchased from the auto auction, it could only be bought for private use. Earl McLeod was not aware that he needed to possess a special driver's license to operate the vehicle he was allowed to drive it from the auction without question. The vehicle is currently fully insured for personal private use and the registration is up to date. Earl McLeod is now aware of the requirements to operate the vehicle and would greatly appreciate getting these fines dismissed or reduced. As previously stated this vehicle is not used for business and does not create income, and this will be a great financial burden on Earl Mcleod Jr. as he was on disability, and now that he is not has been trying to get permanent housing and full time employment. He was not intending to pursue a third party charter/carrier license.
